

Accessibility & Inclusivity Statement

At Trails For Good, our guiding belief is simple: everyone should feel welcome on the trails. We design our events so that people with different needs, abilities, and levels of experience can take part with confidence and enjoyment.

We offer multiple distances, relaxed wave starts, and clear, practical pre-event information to help participants choose the challenge that suits them best. Our routes are selected with care, balancing adventure with safety, and we provide detailed terrain descriptions, elevation profiles, and on-course support so runners can make informed decisions.

We are committed to removing barriers to participation wherever possible. This includes transparent pricing, free volunteer entry options, and thoughtful communication that helps people feel prepared, supported, and included from the moment they sign up.

Kindness, encouragement, and community are at the heart of our events. Our volunteers are trained to offer supportive, inclusive interactions, and we actively seek feedback to improve accessibility year on year.

Whether running or cheering, everyone is invited to share in the joy of moving through the Peak District responsibly together. Trails For Good is for everyone, and we're committed to keeping it that way.
